The criminal history of an applicant to any RTC advisory board will be evaluated prior to joining that advisory board. RTC may notify the applicant of any provisions of law that disqualify a person from serving on an advisory board. A record of conviction is not necessarily a bar to serving on an advisory board. Factors to be considered when looking at records of criminal history include: length of time passed since the offense; age of applicant at the time of the offense; severity and nature of the offense; relationship of the offense to the position applying for; and evidence of rehabilitation of the applicant.

Acknowledgements:

1. This application is the property of the RTC.
2. I understand that the CMAC meets virtually (via Zoom) the first Wednesday of the month at 5:30 p.m. and I confirm that I have sufficient time to devote to this responsibility and plan to attend the required meetings if I am selected to fill a vacancy.
3. I authorize the RTC to conduct a background search which includes criminal history. I further understand this authorization will apply during the entire course of my service on an RTC advisory board. I understand and agree this consent shall remain in effect indefinitely unless I choose to revoke it in writing.
4. I hereby certify that all statements made in this application are true and complete.
